Anita Eccleston- Long Nights

Anita Eccleston has released her single 'Long Nights' infusing the sound of jazz and folk-pop to create this super mesmerising Christmas song. This track definitely takes on them rather mellow toned vocals, as this catchy instrumental begins to play. This piece is definitely one of them more slowed-down Christmas songs, but it works so well. As the brittle texture takes over the vocal aspects and creates this rather moving track.

Anita Eccleston has released her single 'Long Nights' infusing the sound of jazz and folk-pop to create this super mesmerising Christmas song. This track definitely takes on them rather mellow toned vocals, as this catchy instrumental begins to play. This piece is definitely one of them more slowed-down Christmas songs, but it works so well. As the brittle texture takes over the vocal aspects and creates this rather moving track.

This piece is brilliant, really letting the choruses come through in the best way, as it takes you on this journey through the stunning sound that Anita has to offer. Definitely, a piece that tells this rather hard-hitting story through the lyrical approach, but it all works so well. Letting the fantastic vocal aspects collide against the festive instrumental. Be sure to check this piece out, if you haven't already!
